2023
SEASON

Sponsorship Prospectus

3 – 5 February 2023, In-Person

What ?

Hack This Fall is one of the most thriving hacker communities. It began in 2020 with a mindset of encouraging beginner hackers to build unique projects regardless of the tech or field; the only focus is to create something meaningful and enjoy building while also solving the shared struggles of our surroundings.

We aim to promote hackers & give them a platform where they can showcase their skills, meet like-minded people, learn new stuff, & grow together. This year, we are coming up with 3rd edition which will take place In-Person over 36 hours, starting on Friday, February 3rd, and ending on Sunday, February 5th.

Why ?

Hack This Fall's community encourages Inclusion and Diversity at its core and has various events & happenings around the same as well to keep hackers engaged in a meaningful way. This is the perfect opportunity for you to recruit talented hackers, raise brand awareness, receive feedback on your products, or all of the above. We provide many perks & benefits to help you maximize your engagement and meet your goals.

All in all, with Hack This Fall, we want to enhance your experience & this also provides an unique opportunity for you to meet the most creative and innovative projects around.

Who ?

Hack This Fall is organized by a group of passionate humans, from across India. Our mission is to provide a platform to anyone, irrespective of their background, experience, or skill set where they can collaborate in a meaningful way and bring change by solving the shared struggles of our society. We actively aim to encourage everyone to participate in hackathons and we accomplish this by running various activities, events, and meet-ups across the globe.

Hack This Fall is an MLH member event, which means that Major League Hacking has verified it as a high-quality event and fulfills all the standards.

Hack This Fall has something for everyone. From rookies to veterans, we want to encourage hackers from every domain, skill and experience to build with us. Keeping that in mind, we have following tracks we want to focus on during our hackathon this season. That being said hackers are not bound to build around these tech, we will support every project under open innovation which are not from the listed tech.

Community Glimpses

3

Hack This Fall has hosted 2 seasons virtually in the last 2 years. Both the seasons of Hack This Fall experienced an outstanding attendance of 4500+ hackers joining us from 55+ countries across the globe.

Hackers truly understood the value of our motto and showed their excellent piece of innovation and problem-solving skills.

We went one step ahead and even hosted various in-person events & meet-ups! Our community has had its best time while everyone gets to Learn, Build & Share with each other.
